ServSafe Training

This class is an advanced food safety course designed for owners and managers who wish to become certified in food protection. Participants must attend all classes and pass the final exam to receive a ServSafe® certificate and Ohio Department of Health Level Two certification in food protection.

ServSafe® Course dates:

Thursday, April 11, 2019, 8:00 am—4:30 pm (one hour lunch break)

Thursday, April 18, 2019, 8:00 am—4:30 pm (one hour lunch break)

Thursday, April 25, 2019, EXAM, 9:00 am—11:00 am

All classes will be held at Medina County Health Department, 4800 Ledgewood Drive, Medina, Ohio, 44256, in Conference Rooms C&D at the Northeast corner of the building.

TOPICS INCLUDE:
Foodborne Illnesses, Food Allergens, Introduction to Microbiology, Personal Hygiene, The Flow of Food, Cleaning and Sanitizing, Food Safety Management Systems, and Pest Control.

$200.00* per person.

Make Checks payable to Medina County Health Department or call with Visa, MasterCard, Discover, or American Express number.

NOTE: Fee is non-refundable.

Please also note: Low registration may lead to cancellation of class.

MEDINA COUNTY HEALTH DEPARTMENT
Prevent. Promote. Protect.

Name_____ R#_____

Mailing Address_____

Name of Business_____

Business Address_____

Daytime Phone Number_(_____)_____-_____email address_____

The classes will be taught in English. The books and exam, can be ordered in other languages upon request. Please call for more information.
Medina County Health Department, 4800 Ledgewood Drive, Medina, Ohio 44256, (330) 723-9523
Fax (330) 723-9650 Email: env@medinahealth.org

PLEASE submit completed registration form and payment of $200.00 to MCHD, 4800 Ledgewood Drive, Medina, Ohio 44256, by March 15, 2019.

Services are partially funded by your local health levy. This institution is an equal opportunity provider.